Replication

To replicate the results reported run the python file in an ide with the given datasets folder in the same directory. This will print the 3 metrics (MAPE, MAE, RMSE) for each csv file for each system folder in the datasets folder. These results will just be from my solution (the same as in the raw results data pdf file) which I then compared with the baseline results to make the results shown in the report.